Assessors for the first Parish in Boxford

To David Kimball Treasurer of the first parish in Boxford

Whereas the Inhabitants of the said first Parish in Boxford being legally assembled the twenty second day of October 1792 voted to raise certain sums of money to pay the Revd Elizur Holyokes salary, and the necessary charges of the parish the present year; pursuant thereto we have assessed the polls and estates within the said parish, and have committed lists thereof unto Jacob Andrews and Aneil Skichney collectors of the said parish, with warrants in due form of law for collecting, and paying in the same, unto David Kimball Treasurer of said parish, or to his successor in that office on or before the sixteenth day of January next ensuing; each list containing the sums hereafter mentioned (viz) the list in the hands of the said Jacob Andrews is cast at thirty nine pounds fifteen shillings and one penny; the list in the hands of the said Aneil Skichney is cast at four pounds eleven shillings and four pence; which sums you are directed to receive and recover of the aforesaid collectors you are also to receive and recover of the several persons from whom the same may be due the sum of six pounds fourteen shillings and ten pence, interest money arising from the lease of the parsonage farm, and the sale of the pew room all which sums you are to pay out as you shall from time to time receive orders from us, or our successors in office: and we hereby order you to pay to the Revd Elizur Holyoke the sum of sixty six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence being his salary for the present year.

In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hands this twenty first day of December 1792.

Thomas Perley jun.
Assessors of the first Parish in Boxford

Boxford April 6th 1793. Then reckoned with Mr. David Kimball Treasurer of the first Parish in said Town, and we find in his hands the Note from the Treasurer of the Commonwealth as he received the same when he came into Office; also the whole amount of the Principal of all ~~the~~ the Obligations that were put into his hands against particular Persons all of them standing as they were at the the time he received them, excepting the two Notes from the Treasurer of the Town of Boxford, which Notes have been renewed and comprized in one bearing date the thirty first of January 1793 for the sum of £28: 10: 8. Interest being received up to the date thereof; and one years Interest being received on all the other Notes, excepting the Note of John Curtice; whereon the Interest hath been paid to the 28th of September 1792. and the principal thereof secured by a Note from John Town bearing the date last mentioned, making the whole amount of the Principal of private Securities ninety nine pounds eighteen Shillings and eleven pence ½ penny, and the Treasurer hath paid and is discharged from all the Interest received as aforesaid, and from all the Money he received on entering the Office. We find in the Treasurers hands arising from old balances and demands on later Collectors, with a small sum in cash amounting in the whole to the sum of eighteen pounds and five pence; for all which he is to account

To David Shimball Treasurer of the first Parish in Boxf

Whereas the Inhabitants of said first Parish in Boxfor being legally assembled the fourteenth day of September 1793. voted to raise certain sums of Money to pay the Rev. Mr. Hezur Holyoke his Salary, and the necessary charges of the Parish the present year: pursuant thereto we have assessed the Polls and Estates within the said Parish, and have committed Lists thereof unto Timothy Dorman and Amos Perley Collectors of the said Parish with Warrant in due form of Law for collecting and paying in the same unto David Shimball Treasurer of said Parish, or to his successor in that Office; two thirds thereof on or before the first day of November next ensuing; and they are to compleat and make up the whole of their collections on or before the thirty first day of January 1794. Each List contains the sums hereafter mentioned (viz) the List in the hands of the said Timothy Dorman is cast at fifty eight pounds; the List in the hands of the said Amos Perley is cast at fifty seven pounds seventeen shillings; which sums you are directed to receive and recover of the aforesaid Collectors. You are also to receive and recover of the several persons from whom the same may be due the sum of five pounds nineteen shillings and eleven pence Interest money arising by the Lease of the Parsonage Farm and the sale of the Pew room; all which sums you are to pay out as you shall from time to time receive orders from us or our successors in Office; And we hereby order you to pay the Rev. Mr. Hezur Holyoke the sum of sixty five pounds thirteen shillings and four pence being his Salary for the present

In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hands this seventeenth day of October Anno Domini 1793.
